VOLUME XLVII. SUNDAY, MAY 15, 1887—TWENTY-EIGHT PAGES. PRICE

The Time Has Arrived

When every prudent housewife, every father of a family, will have to study how to make every dollar go as far as possible. At no other place in the United States can this be done to better advantage than at the

BEE-HIVE.

The World-Renowned Bargain Centre.

We cannot afford to take a whole page in The Tribune every Sunday, but we propose to enumerate below in the small space at our command a list of bargains which are bound to speak for themselves:

"CLEAN SWEEP!"

NEW DEPARTURE!

Look Out for Imitators.

On and after this date 50 Cents will pay for (1) as Fine Cabinets as can be made on this earth! If, after you have received them, and see just what they are, you wish to increase your order to a dozen or more, we shall be most happy to receive your order at proportionately low prices.

Our object in making sittings so cheaply is to introduce our work, which we believe is the best in the land.

You are not buying a "cat in a bag," as you see just what you are getting every time before paying out much of any money.

Our success all depends upon our making our work so fine that our patrons will order more than the two pictures. Hence, every effort will be made to produce the finest results.

"We give nothing away" with orders, using only legitimate, straight business methods.

We mean to win solely on the merits of our work.

The Ladies and Gentlemen of Chicago are invited to test the quality of our work. All it will cost you is 50 cents (fifty cents), for which you will receive two (2) as beautiful Cabinet Photos as can be made on earth!! Call and we will prove it. Sittings can be engaged in advance.

W. T. MOORE & CO. | W. T. MOORE & CO.

Yesterday morning we opened a beautiful line of Imported Worsted Small Pin-Checks, cut in Four-Button Cutaway Frocks. We had not fixed a price on these Suits, but a leading Clothing House yesterday advertised the indentical thing a Special Bargain at $30 a Suit. So we concluded that $25 ought to be a fair price.

That's The Hub's price!

THE HUB

As you ride by in a Cable Car just throw a glance into The Hub's Show-Window, and no matter if the train is going a mile a minute you'll see enough to convince you that there's something about The Hub that's different from any Clothing Store you ever saw. Some one inquired the other day: "How do you manage to get up such a handsome window?" Simplest thing in the world. Of course, you can't make a Silk Purse out of a Sow's Ear, but if you have the finest goods in Chicago it's no trouble to get up the handsomest display.

IMITATION IS THE SINCEREST FLATTERY!

See how some of the sharpers of our competitors are falling into line, and how they hurry to dance to the music we play them. They see the handwriting on the wall. With our coming a Cyclone has struck prices for Clothing in Chicago, and cold shudders run down the backs of the cent per cent Clothiers. While all other Staple Lines of Merchandise are retailed at a margin of 5 to 10 per cent, there has always been among the Clothiers of Chicago a tradition that Clothing ought to bear a 50 per cent profit, and from that all the way up to 100. The Hub is here with one clear and distinct purpose in view, and that is to knock this tradition into a cocked hat, and build up the Largest Retail Clothing Business in the West on its ruins.

MOTHERS!

Doesn't it sometimes happen that you are forced to decide whether to buy for your boy new suits which you think they need or buy a new spring bonnet for yourself which you know very well you ought to have? If you are in that sort of fix now, just come straight to THE HUB and see prices for their elegant display of Boys and Children Kilt Suits and Knee Pants Suits. It is quite possible THE HUB can save you money enough on the Boys' Clothes to insure you that love of a Bonnet you're thinking of. At any rate you may be certain that THE HUB'S Cheviots and Worsteds for boys at $4, $5, $6, and $8 have never been approached in this city at those figures.

THE HUB'S $10 and $12 Boys' Suits are perfect gems in their way.

WE FEEL PROUD OF THEM.

SPRING OVERCOATS.

THE HUB never thinks of marking a Fine Silk-Lined Spring Overcoat to sell at more than $15, and at this price a pile of them as high as a tabernacle excited fears last night in such proportions that some are somewhat broken in certain lines. To-day there are now they must go at $10. Still a dozen shades of them left to select from, in Cheviots and Imported Worsteds. Remember none of them are lined with silk. They shouldn't last twenty-four hours at this price.

Gentlemen's Furnishing Goods.

Two more of the new things in THE HUB'S Furnishings.

For this week only, 25 ct. White Dress Shirts, 48c. These are fine Laundered Shirts, narrow plaited bosoms, pre-Reconstructed Silk Scarfs, 25c; three for $1.

Linen Collars, approved most Linen, Standing and Turned-Down. Never sold for less than 10c. THE HUB'S price, 10c. Cuffs, same make, 15c.

236, 238, 240 State-st. "THE HUB." 236, 238, 240 State-st.

READ THIS!

Then tell us who will serve you as well?

Every Fine Suit or Spring Overcoat bought of us coming from fire and sympathetic or personally guaranteed to keep in perfect shape for one year, free of expense.

Where you will always find the largest line of Ladies' Dresses and Garments in the city.

We have recently bought a large lot of goods at a great sacrifice, and are selling them VERY LOW.

We do not sell Cotton and Wool Dresses such as are advertised at $6.75, $7, $8, and $8.50. The cheapest Suit we carry is $15. But we guarantee it is made of strictly All-Wool Material, having fully three yards more Cloth, and will wear longer than any two of the slop-factory-made goods referred to, such as are sold by the dry-goods houses. Compare the style and finish of our Suits with those of other stores and you will be astonished.

Remember, we manufacture, selling direct to our customers at small profit, and we can undersell all other houses in our line—a fact which is becoming well known, as is proved by our steadily increasing trade.

We give perfect fit, and all garments are warranted as represented.

By purchasing from us

YOU SAVE From 10 to 30 Per Cent.

Be sure and call before you make a selection, and compare our prices on same quality of goods with others.

SPECIAL!

LADIES:

We wish to call your attention to a special sale of Novelty Dress Goods and Silks, commencing Monday, May 16 (tomorrow), and lasting during the week. We will offer our entire stock of English and French Broadcloths and Royal Cream Cloths, which are the finest goods made in white, and in all the new colorings, at $1.75; our neighbors are selling the same fabrics at $2.75 and $4.00. This is a beautiful Cloth for Tailor-made Gowns or Riding Habits.

Our next bargain is in Ladies' Cashmere and English Tweeds, in Checks, Stripes, and Mixtures, made of the finest Wool, without width, and the beautiful new patterns to choose from. These popular Fabrics are sold within a shade's throw of our store at $1.75 and $2.00; our price to close only $1.25.

100 pcs Silk and Wool Checks and Mixtures, 6-4 wide, in 9 light and 3 dark effects, desirable for combination or entire Gowns, and positively worth 75c; special sale price only 49c.

Standard Cloths, 6-4 wide, all wool, in plain colors and mixtures, light and dark effects, only 59c. A shade over by some 50c for the same.

SILKS.

We have selected about 100 pcs of Black and Colored Silks from our stock, which sold for $1.00, $1.75, $1.98 and $2.00. To this we have added 212 pcs new goods bought at a sacrifice, and worth at retail at the way from $1.75 to $2.50. The entire lot will be placed on sale Monday, May 16, and will at any price, at the ridiculous price of $1.00. Every piece guaranteed Pure Silk and warranted to wear. This lot contains all lines of Gros Grains, Gros Grain Surah, Faille Francaise, and Fancy Novelties, in 50 popular street shades and 12 exquisite evening shades.

We honestly think this is the greatest opportunity for the ladies of Chicago and vicinity to buy popular Dress Silks below at about one-half real value.

Special Offerings in Printed Silks & Cloths. Fine Black Goods, of which we have a full line in Bro-cadines, Drap d'Alma, Satin-de-Cloth, Faconnes, Duchesse Satins, Armures, Armures Cloths, Royales, Satin Cloths, Moiré Velours, Moiré Velour Cloths, Mourning Cloth, Crepe Cloths, Tamise, Cashmere de Cloths, etc. Also special prices in Cashmeres and Serges, Diagonals and High Novelties, Grenadine and Chantrell's Crepons.

Send for samples if you can't attend this sale.

THE "TIMES" DIVISION OF THE NEW CATTLE TRADE.

Advantages Which Rest at Port South from the Continental Rail Substitute Leading Them Who May Possibly Be Forced to Depend Upon Its Progress—Importance of Prices Lowered for Exports—How the Great Wheat Deal Is Looked Upon—Gathering of Republican Clubs.

New York, May 14.—[Special.]—On the subject of "The New Trade" the Times says:

PRINCE LEOPOLD OUT FOR OFFICE.

Departure of the Duke of Connaught to Be His Household Secretary.

New York, May 14.—[Special.]—Prince Frederick Leopold of Prussia, Count Castle, and Baron Rudovitz sailed for Europe this morning on the steamer Elder. They will leave the city at Southampton and visit the principal cities of the United Kingdom, which will combine their tour around the world. At nearly four thousand crowds of people began to congregate upon the pier of the North German Lloyd Company to bid them adieu. By 11 o'clock there were fully 1,000 persons waiting to catch a glimpse of the young Prince. The band inside kept up their spirits by playing patriotic German airs in an enthusiastic manner. The Elder lay at the quiet side of the pier, and next to her was the Trave, which proved somewhat of a disappointment, for instead of being decorated with bunting and the emblems of all nations streaming to the wind from masts and rigging as is usual when the Prince drives up in a fine carriage and alighted with his party, he was greeted with a couple of flags. Baron von Schnebbelen, the German Minister at Washington, General Von Alvensleben, Consul-General Langhorn, and Herr Engel, German Consul to this city were there to receive him. The party started on board the ship and took up their quarters on the upper deck. There they remained until the bell rang for sailing, when Von Schnebbelen, Reichl, and Engel took the Prince aft-guard and took their departure. As the Elder slowly backed out into the stream, the ship's band played the German national air. Then the Prince waved his hat in response to the cheers of the crowd. The affair was taken up by Senator Jacobs in the afternoon session of the Senate, and a resolution was passed extending the courtesies of the floor to Prince Leopold and his suite. The Prince and party will visit Niagara Falls, Chicago, Milwaukee, Detroit, and Niagara Falls on the return trip. They will arrive in this city next Tuesday morning, and will leave for Washington the same day. They will remain in Washington until Saturday, when they will return to this city and leave for Boston the same evening, and sail from that port on the 21st inst. for Liverpool.

A dispatch received from Washington states that the Prince did not visit the Capital to confer the Hope Department with an order of thanks. Secretary Whitney's formal announcement of his intention to do so.

New York, May 14.—[Special.]—The will of the Ballgate estate, situated in the Twenty-fourth Ward, New York City, and Monday at the Surrogate Surrogate, brings to the surface many queer phases of human nature as displayed by surrenderers. About 2,000 acres of land just across the Harlem River was held by the Morris family for nearly 200 years, and the Ballgate brothers fought their fare from Governeur Morris to 1865. Lewis Morris III., a grandfather of Governeur, died in 1760, and by most have been awarded to a housemaid by a Canadian Indian. So in his will he says: "It is my desire that my son Governeur may have the best education that is to be had in England or America, but my express will and intentions are that he never to sell that property to the colony of Connecticut, but the direct notice to his heirs that are born and coming or intimate to the people of that country which by no to improve in their constitution that at their full capacity to from the Revolutionary days of them under the specified parts of religion have endeavored to impose them, drive on the more benevolent men. Governeur Morris, father of the present to the Ballgate land, died in 1831, and in his will mentioned the property, but he still mentioned the property, but he still left to his wife, also gave her a life interest on the Morrisania estate, with all private homes and gave to her plate, furniture, carriages, etc., but in case she was with should marry I give her $20 more per annum to forfeit immediately upon her marriage that connection." This is said to be the only case on record of a man offering his widow a premium to remarry.

SHOOTING IN BOTTLED FIRE.

The Republican Club of this city has begun active preliminary work for next year's campaign. In accordance with President Fox's suggestion for a fight Committee of the Republican State Committee, to be held in this city next fall to discuss the election for 1888, a committee has been appointed to communicate with all the clubs. From letters already received it is evident that the plan is meeting with general favor. The committee has obtained information of State Republican Leagues and is endeavoring to consolidate and that it is proposed to form such organizations in this State before the meeting of the proposed convention.

FOR WORLD'S FAIR.

When the Prince Rudolph, second son of the Emperor and Empress of Austria, arrives in this city next fall he will be met at the Grand Central Depot by a large delegation of the Austrian Consul-General, Baron Schaffgotsch, Consul Hoffman, Vice-Consul Hoffman, and other prominent members of the Austrian colony, and the latter escorted to their respective quarters. A great many invitations have been received for the Prince to visit various cities, but owing to the short time he will remain in this country it is impossible for him to accept them. He will, however, visit Washington, Philadelphia, Boston, and Niagara Falls, and will return to this city and leave for Boston the same evening, and sail from that port on the 21st inst. for Liverpool.

KING OF PIE-EATERS.

A GORGE OF ST. LOUIS HOGS AND GIRLS.

THE CONVENTION IS HERE.

A Vote Taken Upon When the New Judges Will Be Named.

The Republican and Democratic County Central Committees will to-night together to-day, in the Sherman House at 8 o'clock p. m., Messrs. J. L. Woodward, now Mr. Carl Schurz spent the afternoon in Chicago, and a conference yesterday morning and an informal. The meetings of yesterday will be for the purpose of nominating Judges to be voted for June 6, but the real question considered will be the apportioning Republican of the candidates. The Democratic committee will decide to give one candidate to the South Side, one to the West Side, and one to the country. From what can be learned the Democratic committee will ignore the county altogether, and will hold one more than each of the three divisions of the city. If the committee do as they say they will, it will effectually break the slate as at present made up, and there will be no chance for Messrs. Grinnell and Baker to go on the ticket together. It will also bring into prominence several whose chances were considered as a few months ago, but who have recently been regarded as practically out of the race.

With reference to Mr. Grinnell's candidacy, it can be said that sentiment in the Democratic committee has undergone a material change during the last few days, due to the fact it developed that he will consent to run in his proper position. The pressure to have him nominate on the Prosecuting ticket was exceptionally strong and some of the warmest personal and political friends have determined to lose that he will make the greatest sacrifice of his life to accept a Judgeship nomination. He has been told that to-day's office will mean the nominating that he will be made to the bottom of it, and that under the circumstances he could never hope to rank as politic-sensation with his brethren on the bench. These points have been so strongly presented, it is said, that Mr. Grinnell has reversed somewhat in his decision, and has opened negotiations with the Democratic committee for the nomination. It is understood that he will consent to run for Judge of the Superior Court, and there are some who think that he will be the choice of a good deal stronger than that of a candidate. With Mr. Grinnell out of the race Frank Baker and Democratic Leaning will be the leading candidates from the South Side, with the chances slightly in favor of the latter. With an exception of the Democratic committeemen, Baker is the most popular man on the ticket, and has a following that is not to be sneezed at. Mr. Baker has been a Democrat all his life, and has been very active in the Democratic ranks. He has been a delegate to many conventions, and has been a member of the Democratic committee for several years. He is a man of fine personal appearance, and is a good speaker. He has been a member of the Board of Education, and has been very popular with the teachers. He has been a member of the Democratic committee for several years. An Interesting and Inspiring Scene at the Reception of the Lord Mayor of London and His Followers—Controversies of the Sale of the Crown Jewels to Paris—Points of the Week in Court, Dramatic, and Art Circles Abroad.

LONDON, May 14.—[New York World Cable.]—According to a private account the Queen's reception of the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, and Court of Lieutenancy of the City of London at Buckingham Palace Monday was the most interesting function yet held at the court. The ceremonial generally exercised has held since Edward III. reigned to this date, and all ancient precedents was by royal command carefully studied and followed out. At 2 o'clock the queen entered the throne-room accompanied by the Princess Louise, and attended by the Duke of Portland, Lord Chamberlain, Lord Rosebery, Lord Salisbury, the Duke of Abercorn, and Viscount Cross, all of whom, except Rosebery and Salisbury, in full uniform upon full-dress, or gentlemen in waiting, entered in Baron Hill, and there formed an opening and awaiting the arrival of the Lord Mayor and his retinue. Then, in accordance with ancient usage, when the citizens of London in state visited reigning sovereign the entire procession of Engineers, the Sheriffs, City, and Guildhall officers, headed by the City marshal, entered the palace according to the provisions of the Queen's marital precedent, the Lord Mayor of City, the Queen, bowing to the right of the throne, and the Lord Mayor to the left, and the Sheriffs to the right of the throne, and the Lord Mayor to the left of the throne. The Lord Mayor then presented the Sheriffs, and the Lord Mayor then presented the Sheriffs, and the Lord Mayor then presented the Sheriffs, and the CARROLL.

BRICKLAYERS AND CARPENTERS TO FIGHT.

Important Move by the Building Trades Council.

Organization of Master Carpenters.

An important move was made last night at the meeting of the Building Trades Council held in the Greenebaum Building. The Development Union came to for one of the heaviest meetings ever given to any other organization to another, and it was received with that same cordial hand expression that shall be continued at all. The matter came about in the following manner: The delegates from the Bricklayers Union stated that they had heard the boss contractors were going to bring into the city some bricklayers from outside to the Chicago Bricklayers Union to put a number for a later number of the International Bricklayers Union. This the people immediately got interested.

Delegates wanted to know if it such an event that would be permitted to the union, or to what level for such men. When the Committee asked for the non-presence of the brickyard the latter entirely ignored him. Every delegate to said discussion expressed the friendliest views. One said he had seen those other connections, but he'd be taught if the Bricklayers' Union didn't have a hand. The organization was in ready to send delegates to the Council when the hours of all to a meeting among the following resolution was offered:

Resolved, That the Contractors' Union then and sent a delegation to explained it to his council to meet Monday night to all contract matters, and that he be asked to appear to investigate the matter and bring to a meeting next Monday night.

This resolution was amended so as to make the time matter going the bricklayers will if nothing occurs to make a committee was appointed to serve the resolution to the Architectural Union today, and that they will have to call a special meeting Monday night to answer the communication. They will probably send the delegates as to what hours to discussing that week, and would be a victory for the hours. The Building Trades Council will be in special meeting Monday to receive an answer.

The master carpenters held an adjourned meeting last night, with a large attendance. Eight new members were received and elected. The practice and constitution report of the morning meeting of the Builders' and Traders' Exchange was read and was quite plain to Mr. Woodard moved that a committee of three be elected to superintend the separation of the Wednesday conference. Mr. Stover seconded the motion to read as. The matter carpenter work chiefly interested, and entitled a proper representation. He desired to have what the report means stated. It is now a fight for a better day per day. Some one or one of calling the matter for it. Several other matters to interest, however, the meeting delegate and the committee question, but neither the adjournment would settle at all question. Mr. Woodard said a word also to what was to hold Trades Board. A short time ago he was telling the carpenters that they must organize the labor unions. Now he had tried of the foregoing, work and conference, and of the result.

It was stated that there, but was no definite date given, the jobs were running on the hours and to be put in effect only after a general agreement. Mr. Ellis Hunt and Mr. Woodard, also Chairman Mr. C. A. Frost, and Mr. Stover were appointed as delegates to the conference. A long debate followed as to the satisfactory result, which to give the delegates. Mr. Woodard was in favor of giving them full power to act on all matters until referring a letter to the union carpenters. He was supported in this position by several members, who based their opinion on the fact that the Building Trades Council was a body of intelligent delegates. Some objection was raised because of the necessity continuing reporting the matter before Wednesday evening when there is here of a return to the two days. The motion in favor of unrestricted delegates, which would obligations with full power to digest a bolt, was carried by an ample majority vote. The meeting adjourned until Thursday night, when it is expected a report can be had from the delegates.

ARRESTED TO HOLD THEM.

An Important Meeting of the Builders' Exchange Held Yesterday.

Only after it costs the Builders' Exchange to secure the union of attention for hundreds of contractors engaged in the various lines of work in the building trade. When President George Tapper called the meeting to order the exchange room was crowded to the doors. A large number of business men and members of the exchange were present and attended a hearty welcome by the Chairman to the opening remarks. President Tapper made a short speech to which he said: "The most of the men present understand the object for which this meeting was called. As you all know, the trouble culminated with the strike of the carpenters and has been followed by the laborers and bricklayers. The time has come to call a halt. [Applause.] Business in Chicago has been materially injured for years by frequent cases of strikes. It is an absolute impossibility for us to continue under the existing circumstances. Today witnesses the inauguration of the largest strike ever started in Chicago. Every man who has the welfare of the city at heart is interested in the outcome of this strike or lockout as you choose to call it. Many long-established industries have been driven from our city. It has to decide upon the proper course to pursue that this condition may exist. I have the matter in your hands, believing that you are competent to find out a safe which will result in a permanent solution of the problem."

The formation of the trouble is well known, and though C. Dyering, the principal delegate for labor organizations, was present, he was not called upon for information. Every man present was given the floor and free opportunity to express his views. The matter was finally put in the hands of a committee of three to report at a meeting to be held this morning at 10 o'clock. The committee is composed of Messrs. Ellis Hunt, C. A. Frost, and W. Stover were appointed

Suicide of Two Lovers

ABOUT THE CITY-HALL.

THE DEMAND AS TO CHIEF MARKEY FORMALLY DISCUSSED.

That Are Stated by the Civil Service Commissioners—Will Applying for a Revocation of Their Action—The Law Rule Referred Thoroughly—Changes Among the Police—The Legislative Measure to Increase Certain Salaries—The Water Wrangle.

Rather more quiet around the City-Hall yesterday, but there was the going about appointments that for some time past. The Mayor was engaged in attending to city business and refused absolutely to see any persons unless by appointment. Many of the applicants for positions under the new Civil-Service Commissioners' rules were on hand, and the Mayor was compelled to refuse to see them. Commissioner Swift visited the Water-Works on the North Side, and from one of the windows of the engine-house saw the men employed at work out in the lake. In other engine-houses he found that the work was in order, and appointments given to enforce it.

The great street-car fight is anticipated as excellent City Treasurer was quite pronounced, although Mayor Harrison still took the same view of it. He also said that the street cars, and rather hoped to get the money. He also said that the Mayor was engaged in the matter of issuing certificates, a rule was laid down by the latter to the effect that no certificate should be issued to anyone from him was that nominally the certificates were to be issued, but practically they were not. The Comptroller, following Mr. Ellis, will be kept looking up Mayor's private accounts, but pretended that the matter was not pressed. This action was from the City Treasurer to effect that persons to whom certificates were issued were to be kept in the habit of handing large sums of money. Mr. Ellis did not say it was Mayor, but suggested that the man in question had been obliged with him.

Attorney Mayo, ago Commissioner Swift refused the fact that the Company persons not to buy up a portion of their stock, but, on the other hand, that persons were not to buy any more stock in the company to increase the capital stock. The matter is to be taken up by the Council on the 23d. Mr. Burke yesterday addressed the following letter to him:

I am of opinion that the Chicago Gaslight & Coke Company has the right under its charter to issue to the extent of one-half of its present capital stock, and that it is not necessary to submit the question to the stockholders. Under the charter of the Company, the Board of Directors have the power to increase the capital stock to the amount mentioned, and I am not of opinion that such action is subject to the approval of the stockholders. Under the charter, the Board of Directors have the power to issue bonds to the amount of the capital stock, and I am not of opinion that the Company is under any obligation to offer the stock to the stockholders before disposing of it to others. I am not aware of any decision of the Supreme Court of this State which would affect the question of the right of the Company to increase its capital stock, and I am of opinion that the Company is not under any obligation to submit the question to the stockholders before issuing the stock.

Corporation Counsel Ewing has not yet rendered his decision as to the legality of the Civil-Service Commissioners' rules, but is expected to do so in a few days. He has been busy with other matters, and has not had time to look into the matter. He says that he will render his decision as soon as possible.

A NEW YORK CRITICISM.

[NEW MOVEMENT CREATES THAT A DEMAND FOR PIETY.]

Between Colonel and Tammany's Wife Preparations Call for Dramatic Skill of Both to Fetch Them—Prayer Breaks to the World of Music—The Successful Concert—Notes from Abroad Notes.

Beginning on "Elaine" as produced in New York, "Eve Gerdon" writes:

Elaine, as it were to depart from and forever, Tennyson, in full flow and with all the power of his genius, has given the public the story of the search, in the interest of the Arthurian king, Round of Knights of the Round Table, for the sangreal, or English Holy Grail, the cup from which Christ drank at the last supper with his disciples, and which Joseph of Arimathea brought to England and hearing. Of the search Galahad, the knight of perfect purity, was successful, and to him the vision was vouchsafed. Percivale's story will appear on the lecture field next season, being the first of a series of lectures to be delivered by Miss Anna Dickinson, the subject of which will be announced later. Percivale's story is told in England and hearing. In their early lee there chief characteristics. Everything is dramatic with Tennyson, and antagonist except poetry. Everything is dramatic with Tennyson, and antagonist except poetry. Everything is dramatic with Tennyson, and antagonist except poetry

CHICAGO REAL ESTATE.

FAVORABLE OUTLOOK OF THE LABOR TROUBLES.

Fairly Active in Some Lines but Generally Quiet—The Coming Struggle Between the Unions and the Union Men—Powerful Co-operation Between the Boot-Savers Men and Architects and the Matter Becomes Simple Sailing for the Week.

The indications at the real-estate market of the last week found very little of an unusual character to interest him. The market was by no means devoid of activity, but the tendency for large pieces of property of any kind was somewhat much more in the west, and the other sections had a most depressing effect upon prevalent transactions in property intended for improvement. In view of the complaints of prevalent dullness on the part of many dealers the actual transactions of the week are surprising, the aggregate surpassing what most interests to expect. But the feeling was decidedly to small lots, even for the time being assuming a low prominent place in the market that dominates this spring. This and the other engrossing features of the market have no doubt been assigned to the unusually belligerent attitude of the contractors and the workmen of the building trades, and much uneasiness regarding the outcome of the difficulty is manifested on all sides. The most conservative dealers believe that the proper course for a definite settlement of differences has finally been pursued by the members of the Builders' and Traders' Exchange, and much good feeling towards its members is expressed in the majority of offices, which they are aware of the fact that the chances in favor of complete recovery from the effects of the enforced lockout during the present year are very slim indeed. One of the oldest dealers in the city pointed out that: "People are thoroughly convinced of the unreasonable demands made upon the real-estate market in addition to the strikes which have been in progress for a few years past. It began the very summer we passed to the building business, for in a city like Chicago the bulk of our trades are made with the view of improvement, and therefore the question of investment and supply the same. So when a man who wants a lot for a home for himself or for the erection of houses or flats to rent learns that a strike is interfering with hauling the likelihood is that unless he has a very much longer sight he will postpone purchasing until affairs are settled. The conclusion as to the worst method of arranging these troubles is one impossible of such occurrence, but any term of it is that the time has fully arrived when the men who have capital at stake in the building business should assert their rights in the management of their own affairs or if the strike leaders shall insist on the arrangement of all their plans. The present mode of dealing has continued until it is a very serious matter to all who handle real estate, and it will be a very great boon to capital and the good of all if they can be relieved from the present danger, for it seems to me the settlement can be materially improved in many ways."

S. L. and E. T. Strong sold the southwest corner of the east side of Fourth avenue, 66x132 feet, south of Twenty-second street, with the 10-story brick, to E. D. Fales for $65,000. The northwest corner of Townsend and Fifty-second streets, 50x125 feet, was sold by C. and L. Fabian to H. Lyman for $11,000. The south corner of Hamilton street property, 50x125 feet, was sold by J. C. Easton to Henry Jordan for $9,000. Two stores on the lot, 20x80, were sold by J. C. Easton to Mrs. Bailey for $10,000. The lot is assessed for $6,000. Lot 4 in Block 1 in Cottage Grove addition, with the 2-story brick dwelling, 2,000 Calumet avenue, was sold by Mrs. Esther A. Fuller to J. Fagan for $12,000. All the southwest corner of Jackson and Sheridan avenue, 50x100 feet, was sold by Mrs. Mary Lawrence, who sold to E. E. Dorsett for $10,000. The lot is located 100 feet south of Van Buren, and the price is one of the best that has been paid in that locality. A lot on Grand boulevard, near Forty-fourth street, 75

GUNTHER'S NEW BUILDING.

THE FINEST CONFECTIONERY ESTABLISHMENT OF THE CONTINENT.

A Magnificent Six-Story Fire-Proof Edifice of Unique and Original Design to Be Erected Without Delay on Rush Street to Be Opened Welcome-day for Business.

Tribesmen to the public at large, Mr. Charles G. Gunther, the confectioner, has for the past year been engaged in building a magnificent six-story confectionery establishment entirely fire-proof, and supplied with all modern improvements. The building is of unique and original design, and is located at No. 210 State street. Mr. C. G. Gunther, the well-known architect, made the plans, and that they reflect credit upon the genius of his talent.

The beautiful store, which, in the interior decorations surpasses anything ever seen in this country, will be open Wednesday for business, and Mr. Gunther extends a cordial invitation to his numerous customers and friends to call and inspect the new place. A description of these beauties, to the pen of artistic decorators, will be found below.

The building is arranged for a manufactory and wareroom for Gunther's celebrated candies, and in the basement are located the machines for making ice cream, ices, and soda water. The first and second stories are devoted to the retail trade, and here will be found every possible convenience for the fitting together with the choicest creations of the confectioner's laboratory.

On the third floor will be manufactured all kinds of bonbons, which in the shape of confectionery, are on the fourth floor Mr. Gunther has had constructed rooms for the purpose of having at trade of European pastry. The fifth and sixth floors are to be used for storage purposes.

It is Mr. Gunther's determination to cater to all the luxuries of progressive and artistic confectionery, and to produce here, candies and pastry such as Chicago, it may be said, is the reputation that the restaurants, even as regards as a result and duty to those, he has all over the world, such fine prizes to Mr. Gunther in the Chicago establishment.

It is his purpose not to confine his business efforts to the line of candy manufacture, and that to make a good start at this time the beautiful soda fountain below will open.

The interior decorations of the building does have ever been surpassed in the country, or perhaps in the world. Artistic designs, pure taste, and complete harmony in tone are all exhibited, and the eye at once reposes itself on the rich and chaste of the interior. For the marble and decorative artistic painters, and to for all the handiwork of the artistic work here was employed. Everything has been done to make the establishment superior to all others, and Mr. Gunther's experience of Nos. 5, 7, 9, 11, and 13 East Adams street, which have made it a popular resort for ladies, is a guarantee that success will be the good name, but nothing that equals the Gunther store.

From the front, or east side of the store the visitor looks into a broad view to the great entrance. The color is wondrous. There is not a trace of reflection to mar the beauty of the tones. The ceiling is an artistic canopy of pearly cream tinged, and the sweeping is of soft, dusky brown. The stained glass windows are a marvel of beauty and elegance. On the north side and in front of these is a handsome soda fountain of the most artistic and modern design. On the south side are a number of graceful tables, chairs, and beautiful pyramids of the choicest candies of various kinds. The pyramids are so nicely arranged that they do not in any way interfere with the effect of the general surface. On this side of the store, too, are stained glass windows which repeat those in front. They have been added to the proper lighting of the store and Mr. Gunther deserves credit for the manner in which he has arranged for lack of light. These windows are of the same quality of glass as the great entrance doors and of handsome beauty.

Mr. Gunther's ambition of Mr. Gunter to the decorating of his new store was to make it the handsomest on the west side. In this he has succeeded well. It is an achievement worth the trouble which in this country has fact that artistic taste in such a combination of materials have resulted in such a great harmony of colors as in ceiling and walls, and it seems to bring these two essentials together with the most pleasing effect. Even the floor adds to the general effect. Even the floor adds to the general effect. Even the floor adds to the general

Another of the articles is a reprint of Tom Paine's famous pamphlet, "Common Sense," which, first published in 1776, the editor says "gained an effect upon the people of [illegible] astonishing credibility."

There is a good deal of poetry in these volumes, the first number containing "The Battle of the Kegs," a famous Revolutionary piece written by Francis Hopkinson, one of Philadelphia's most noted writers and patriots.

AT THE RIDING-SCHOOL.

THE PAPE SHOWS WHAT GOOD-LOOKING HORSES ARE FLOGGED.

Higher Education of Man's Best Friend in Vogue in Chicago—The Steps and Forms, and Splendid Gentleman of the Abbreviated Head — A Woman Who Competes for the Cup of Eighteen—and the Whip — The Only Reason Why Horses' Tails Are Docked.

It is almost quixotic to quote horses and the difficulty of finding hands just adapted to the requirements of practical equestrianism the question was made that the real gentle horse should not be a specialist, or a racer, or a gymnast, or a dancer, or a draught horse, or a roadster, or a pacer, and it was set forth that the real and queen gentle horse must submit that the fit horse that could go over the ground the fastest with the least fatigue to his rider.

Men still and women to horsemanship to inspire a rider. It is picturesque and often graceful, but wearing on muscles and gradations of sense. The last remark is the result of an observation of an hour or so made the other day at a popular riding academy on the North Side. The managers of the institution was especially hot at the suggestion that only good saddle horses are to be met that fashionably on Sunday, and to the bicycles might who envied the idea: "If you will come with me I'll show you the finest saddle horses in the world!"

C. D. Mosier is the principal owner. He is a young man, with a military bearing and a fox mustache. He also wears corduroys with a "confidence" as horsemen sportsmen. He wears high top boots. Wellington and calfskins flung with silver spurs that Buffalo Bill would give one of his eyes to possess, for the spurs were given to Lieut. Mosier by the King of Sweden. Lieut. Mosier was formerly at the head of the riding school of the Royal Horse Guards at Stockholm, as instructor assistant to the Count, and under the direction of the Royal Inspector of Cavalry. He has been in this country five years, and rather accepts the contingency that a pure gentle horse ought here in Chicago, and he (up next day).

Lieut. Mosier took his visitor into the fine Corinthian stone hall that forms the front. "There are good many days," said the Lieutenant, "that have to use of the four horses in the stable, and to permit to a back across Narragansett park, which is the best we can do at present, and it is a better than I'd have you in the two back in the evening. But I have a half dozen, that never have spent daily and the other two in a way that I want you to see. I'll show you what I mean, and you can have both kinds and to the back with, if you like."

"What is the back with gentleman?"

"The kind which of gentleman act. It knows the many actions, by the rider's good hand and leg, to please which is to obtain how to keep a head erect and proper and step quick and active, and how to handle his rider and to figured himself while it is being done. It does not, John (to an attendant), bring out the red roan mare. I also you the likenesses of the horse made. (Open don't mention this with the patent of Lieuts. Inserts Gough, the horse, that there is not one but an actor to act, but I will show you by the motions and exercises that there are a good many more a joke to perform with a good many more to perform with a good many more."

The fine mare was soon out. He had a good mount head, a short tail, a hanging back, and he was the perfect picture of an English hunter. In five-minute experiment, the things and furniture were noted and studied. Lieut. Mosier approached him, passed his hand to smoothing him, gave him the lover's rein, rubbed him the ear, his right leg stepped to the ear, mounted a little and then with a spring and a bound of the horse's body he was in the saddle. He sent with a good deal of gliding, but he did not remain long in the saddle. He sent with a good deal of gliding, but he did not remain long in the saddle. THE EXPANSIVE SLEEVE.

DIFFERENT STYLES WORN BY FASHIONABLE AND FOR WOMEN'S PRETTY ARMS.

The Puff Over the Tying for Coats, Jackets and Suits—How "Anything" Can Be Made Out of Sleeves—A Striking Bolero Suit of Black and White Material—A Suggestion for Jackets Made of Leather—A Queer of Some of the London Modistes.

The coming sleeve is going to be quite large enough to wear the average length coat, but it is somewhat different from the sleeve of last season. Now, there is the tendency to have the sleeve fit well across the biceps muscle, "as not to puff or pull over and over," and to puff out and down and gather in at the wrist. To be more explicit, it has a large puff at the top, then a small fitting or close part, and then another puff. This is just the thing for all those soft, pretty silks and wools, [illegible]. On many of the new dresses the sleeve is made with a slight extension of the shoulder seam over the arm, and this extension is puffed at the wrist. The sleeve is then gathered with the sleeve having a two-inch heading. For the puffed part of the sleeve three puffs fall over the fitting part, but for evening and dress occasions they are smaller. Over the puffs [illegible] and silks

BLACK DOG AND DARK CAT.

OBLIGATION WHICH ONLY WEALTHY CHINESE CAN AVOID.

The Color of the Animal Offered for Sale Is the Subject—The Flower Boats and Floating Homes of the Port of Canton—Administration of Justice—Horrible Punishment Inflicted on Prisoners—Curiosity Dealers Besieged by a Foreigner.

CANTON, China, April 5.—[Special Correspondence.]—"The latter [Dr. I Ong] had given the dollar, four cents, for [illegible]." For a parliamentary high price for a dog in other eyes, one would naturally think, especially if the dog were a good one and fine-clean; and yet when one sees the shrunk, starved, and mangy cur in front of a butcher's shop to one of the narrow streets of the Chinese city of Canton it would hardly seem as though a difference in the color of a canine would make any difference in the price. But it does. Black dog and black cat in the Chinese epicurean and very nutritious and the rich can afford the luxuries of dog and cat, more numerous as they are than fish or pork, are much better eating than police or white or spotted animals of the same sort, and as a proof of the gastronomic of the color of these delicacies there have not yet been offered with their hides when they are skinned, but are left untouched. So that with their table upon them they are exposed for sale, and to an extent a tempting sight are they. Butcher's meats for sale, like dogs and cats, are not to be found in every shop. They are even greater delicacies and certainly are much more inviting, for they are not evident to the eye to which they are found, but after they have been thoroughly washed and dressed. They are divided up into small pieces and are of a gruesome composition, but have when ready for the cuisine a savory, tempting appearance.

Canton, one of the largest and perhaps the most interesting city of the great Celestial Empire, is situated near the mouth of the Pearl River, and notwithstanding the fact that it is a seaport town, and would naturally seem to be peculiarly exposed to European and visiting influences, is today less changed from what it was when Marco Polo, the intrepid and enterprising traveler, first made his way into it several centuries ago. The Chinese evidently regard the foreigner as more fully than subsequent travelers, for to him, with Christian fair and with to hear accredited to a European, has to set up with all absorbed, pig-tailed Mongolians to the celebrated Temple of the Five Genii [illegible]. Great cities represent how they all are exploring among them [illegible] as well as the problem of the Chinese Empire.

At the present time there is no question but that Chinese activity abroad is increasing. It is only a couple of years ago that the inhabitants of the European quarter of Yokohama, the largest port of the Japanese empire, were obliged to flee from their homes in the interior of the river ports. The Chinese flocked in numbers to the French. At that time the authorities of Canton there gave orders for every such junk to strengthen the barrier they were making. There is a perfect warning to vessels to pass through, but some of the pirate junks did there, a memorial of that treatment at the time to be a serious war between a great Oriental and a great European power. Numbers of small boats [illegible] were sent out of all of advantage. Change the opinions some time to suit the taste of foreigners as they are carried along in active chairs. Instead of the [illegible] and [illegible] are made to Chinese are often borne at the power to, but generally the strongest the gun-utility shall be regarded very as an object of curiosity and interference about time to having native [illegible] about him. The width of the street of the [illegible] is about ten feet, and they are paved with [illegible] stone flags, but there is no system of drainage. The only way of getting about is to walking or to being carried by coolies or chairs. There are four modes for each chair, one behind and two in front.
